TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

During 2024, nearly 7,500 new crew members embarked on the MSC Cruises fleet. In 2025, we are expecting around 8,000 new crew members. Priority will be given to ensuring the vast majority are trained in all aspects of compliance through our e-learning modules and face-to-face training.

FRAUDULENT EMPLOYMENT OFFERS

MSC Cruises is aware of cases of fraudulent shipboard employment offers being made to potential candidates for shipboard positions by unauthorised and unconnected third parties. These offers are normally made via web adverts and/or direct emails by third parties maliciously impersonating our cruise brands representatives for the sole purpose of taking advantage of vulnerable workers in a country with a high unemployment rate. We are conscious that such malicious practice could be a vehicle for human trafficking or a scam against said workers who are promised to process their travel documents against the payment of an upfront fee. We constantly and closely monitor this situation soliciting our agencies to report any issue associated with this issue, highlighting the risk on our webpage, and monitoring social media via specialised providers.

MSC CRUISES SUPPLIERS' PROCUREMENT PROGRAM

MSC Cruises chooses suppliers who share high ethical standards and concern for the welfare of workers, the environment, and local communities. The MSC Cruises' Business Partner (Suppliers) Code of Business Conduct outlines the expectations MSC Cruises has of its suppliers, and it reflects the commitment to undertake business in a fair, ethical, and responsible manner. In addition, procurement initiatives ensure the incorporation of specific clauses on ethical business conduct and sustainability in every contract and agreement when suppliers are formally registered via our online portal. MSC Cruises has a specific clause in its contracts when working with external workers in its workplaces, providing special protection to them, which is regularly checked and forced. Key contractual clauses include:

- Environmental Protection
- Health & Safety at work
- Social responsibility
- Modern Slavery
- Compliance with anti-corruption and sanction laws.

MSC Cruises has a zero-tolerance approach towards the violations of the laws banning forced labour, slavery, and human trafficking. MSC Cruises contractual agreements permit the termination of suppliers for a single violation.
